Safety Checker Program

Just as reminder about the importance of the “I’m Safe” Cards:
The purpose of these cards is to ensure the safety and well being of Linden Place tenants, i.e. should they fall and not be able to get to the phone or door. We recommend full participation in this program as we know it has benefited people over the years. This program is voluntary, and if you choose to participate, we require you to sign a waiver. Please note: families and/or friends should always remain as the first safety check, but this program is a good back up. If you or your families have any questions about this program, please contact Janie Thiessen, Tenant Resource Coordinator at 204-326-9898.

I’m Out

Thanks For Checking

From the Chaplain's Desk

*For everything, there is a season, a time for every activity under heaven.
(Ecclesiastes 3:1 NLT)*

September is here and Fall, or autumn, is around the corner. When I think back to my childhood, September was a time of new beginnings – School started on September 1st. September was also a time of anticipating warmer clothing and a wood fire in the evening, rainy days and rubber boots, foggy mornings and harvesting the garden. We had a large garden at home, with fruit trees and shrubs, vegetables, potatoes, and so on. And there was this big walnut tree in our village where we picked walnuts for the coming Christmas season. I have fond memories of my childhood, and I guess as I am getting older, I start to look back through a different lens.

As a chaplain, I have the incredible privilege to listen to many different life stories, and I begin to understand that the autumn of life is an odd mixture of nostalgia, blessings, and potential. It yields the harvest of seeds we've sown throughout life and prepares us for colder days to come. As the seasons of life come and go, we look back and see how God led us through life, and we look up to the God who is unchanged in an ever-changing world. He is indeed the same yesterday, today and forever. The psalmist is right when he says:

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God. (Ps 90:1–2 ESV)

The autumn of life is a great time to focus on God's blessings—family, friends, strength, shelter, provision, guidance, care, fruitful ministry, opportunities to serve, more time to pray and study His Word, and eternal life still to come. What a day that will be!

As followers of Christ, may we remain close to Him during the shifting seasons of life.

Ron Babel, Chaplain
