Fraud and Scam Prevention Tips

Back in February, Constable Bunn came to talk about frauds and scams of various kinds, and he encouraged us to become knowledgeable of what we can do to prevent falling prey to frauds and scams.

Here are a few quick tips – for a detailed information sheet see Janie at the office.

1. Don't make any decisions without doing your homework. Look into the offer being made and seek advice before making any decisions.
2. Never send money or provide personal banking details to anyone you don't know and trust.
3. Delete and do not open any e-mails that appear to be suspicious. Looking at the e-mail address may help to verify if it is from a reliable source.
4. Do not trust unsubstantiated claims about medicines, magic pills or miracle cures. Always consult your doctor who is knowledgeable about medicinal options that might be right for you.
5. If you feel unsure of a call, e-mail or text message you have received. Talk to someone about it to get a second opinion before acting on anything the inquirer is asking of you.
6. It is okay to hang up if you suspect a phone call is a scam. There is no reason you need to stay on the line.

From the Chaplain's Desk

I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (Galatians 2:20 ESV)

I don't know many Bible verses that better describe what it means to be a Christian, what it means to be a follower of Christ. You and I have been crucified with Christ. How appropriate as we prepare for Easter 2019.

The apostle Paul is using these words intentionally, drawing us back to Jesus' words, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me" (Matt. 16:24).

So, the cross is not just the place of death for Christ, it is the place where we have died with him. As a follower of Christ, I died to myself to the point that it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me and through me. What a glorious thought. What a great exchange. Being a follower of Christ means, according to Galatians 2:20, that it is no longer you or me living, but Christ living in and through us.

Yes, we live in the flesh every day, but how do we live? Do we live, relying on our own strength and resources? No, we live by faith in the Son of God. We were not just saved by faith, we live by faith every single day. We have the privilege to wake up in the morning and give the coming day into His hands, "Lord, I cannot do this on my own, I need you to live through me. I trust that you will be my wisdom, my strength, and my joy. Today, I live by faith in you."

The last phrase, "I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me," should be before our eyes every day. He loves us so much that he gave himself for every person who wants to believe. The invitation is not for you and me only. It is for everyone. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16).

This Easter season, let us celebrate Christ living in and through us. I invite you to attend the Good Friday Communion Service and the Easter Sunday service at 9:00 am here at Linden Place.
