LINDEN PLACE NEWS

a great place to live

"The first week of August hangs at the very top of summer, the top of the live-long year, like the highest seat of a Ferris wheel when it pauses in its turning. The weeks that come before are only a climb from balmy spring, and those that follow a drop to the chill of autumn, but the first week of August is motionless, and hot. It is curiously silent, too, with blank white dawns and glaring noons, and sunsets smeared with too much colour."

INFORMAL CHAPEL SERVICES

Wednesdays at 10:00 am

Weather Permitting, our chaplain Aaron will host a service outside, in case of bad weather we'll move into the MPR.

From the Chaplain's Desk

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and he will make straight your paths" ~ Proverbs 3:5-6

I'm sure that somewhere along the line you have heard the expression, "whistle while you work". This is a phrase that may bring varying responses to different people. Maybe whistling is a distraction from the task at hand, or daydreaming, but for many people it is the idea that in whatever we are doing it helps to focus on the positive. Or sometimes on the construction job-site I depend on a loud whistle to get someone's attention. To stop, to go, or to warn of a potentially dangerous or damaging situation.

My grandma Barkman, who has now passed on to her heavenly home, was a woman who I will always remember as one who "whistled while they worked". Well, maybe not an actual whistle, but it was often a prayer, the melody of a hymn, or a Scripture verse that accompanied her task at hand. In her later years she quilted each of her many grandchildren a blanket as an expression of love and blessing as she looked to acknowledge God's leading in her family. Each blanket was quilted in love, prayers, and tears as she looked to serve God in faithfulness.

Where is our focus in the life journey we are on? ...whether it is our work, our hobbies, volunteering, getting together with family, etc. God wants our heart of devotion. This verse above, found in Proverbs 3:5-6 gives its readers some short, but essential truths as we go about our daily lives. To trust in the Lord and not to depend on our own understanding. Why is that? Because for the majority, if not all the time, we tend to mislead even ourselves. The problem is that our own ways are very empty and often lack healthy focus. But when we look to God in all circumstances then we receive clarity as he teaches and leads.

As we lean on God with all that we are, as we love and give our lives to follow Him in faithfulness, He is going to delight in guiding us along our life journey. Therefore, we acknowledge Him... In what we do, what we say, what we are going through, or things we are thankful for. May we desire to acknowledge God in all areas of life.

To God be the glory as He leads us each day!

Policy Posting

Tenant Occupancy

New! Stay informed with HavenGroup policies as we add them to the newsletter.

POLICY:

Steinbach Housing will ensure that all tenants meet the obligation of permissible occupancy, under the guidelines of the Residential Tenancies Act, by signing a Tenancy Agreement.

PROCEDURE:

All tenants moving into a Steinbach Housing apartment complex will be required to sign a Tenancy Agreement prior to taking possession of an apartment. The tenancy agreement will clearly state that no individual, other than the person(s) signing the agreement, shall occupy their unit except by birth or marriage.

The landlord will allow for overnight visitors in a tenant's apartment for duration of seven (7) days, however, anyone exceeding ten (10) days per month will no longer be considered a visitor and will need to vacate the building.

Should visitors exceed this time allotment or repeatedly violate the ten (10) days per month, management will advise the tenant in writing to comply with this policy and be given a time frame to correct the violation or their tenancy may be terminated.

All Fernwood visitor parking is on the street due to limited availability. Linden Place visitor parking is available in stalls identified accordingly.

The tenant(s) is not permitted to allow occupancy of their apartment to anyone, including immediate family members, as their primary residence. The tenant(s) will also not allow anyone to occupy their apartment during a vacation or any other extended absence.

Book Mobile

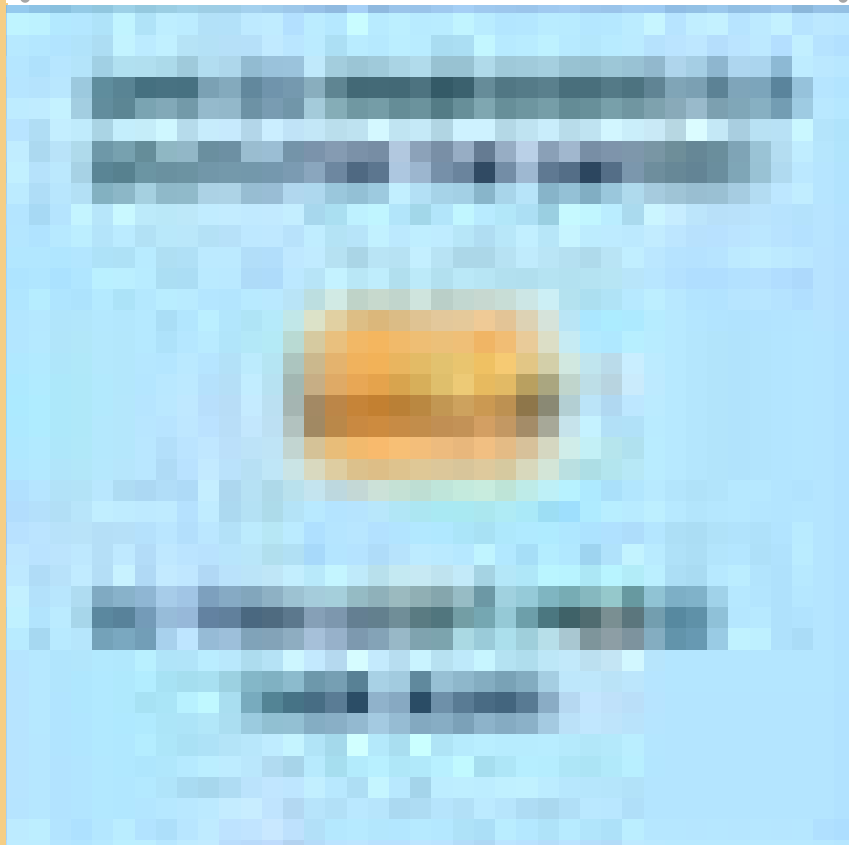

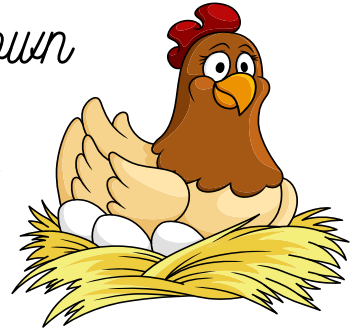

Please put your completed Book Mobile Order Forms into the office door slot by: Tuesday, August 24 ~ BEFORE 10 am

Because I'm away on vacation, Kaeli will pick them up from there and place the order. Thanks!
